

Dates on the calendar are closer than they appear!

*July 1, 2013: PA Common Core Standards
Go into Effect and Librarians Will Be Responsible for Teaching Students 44 of 131 Standards in:*

- English Language Arts
- Reading and Writing in Science, Technology and Technical Subjects
- Reading and Writing in History and Social Studies
- Academic Standards for Business, Computer and Information Technology

Learn how to teach the PA Common Core Standards
Using

A Model Curriculum for PA School Library Programs

just developed by PSLA and Commonwealth Libraries

<http://www.pdesas.org/module/sas/curriculumframework/LibraryModelCurriculum.aspx>

Mark your calendars:

Thursday, May 23, 2013, 4:30-7:00 p.m.

Allegheny Intermediate Unit (AIU3)

475 E. Waterfront Dr., Homestead, PA 15120

Instructors Eileen Kern, PSLA President, and Mary K. Biagini, Model Curriculum Editor

Co-sponsored by:

- Pennsylvania School Librarians Association
- Western Pennsylvania School Librarians Association
- University of Pittsburgh School Library Certification Program

Dinner will be provided by Pitt SLCP Fund

Please RSVP by Monday, May 20: Mary Kay Biagini

412-624-5138 or biagini@pitt.edu